

METROPOLITAN TRANSIT AUTHORITY 5892

A typical Boston type 5 car turning from Belmont St. onto Mt. Auburn St. in East Watertown, Mass. It is near the end of trolley service on the Waverley line, as you can see the newly strung trackless trolley wires. 5892 was in a lot of 100 cars built by Brill in 1925. The PCC is headed to Watertown where trolley service will run a few months longer. April 18, 1958.
